2. SHARE  (For the next 10 minutes)
Now pair up. Share with your partner an instance of when you would like to be seen as either more authoritative or more approachable. How might the strategic use of body language help you shift the dynamic of the relationship or situation? In other words, how could you use the body language of power to adjust how others see you and react to you? What challenges might you encounter? After 5 minutes, switch and let your partner share. Stick to the allotted time so everyone gets a turn.

3. DISCUSS  (For the next 15 minutes as a group)
Each person, share one discovery or reflection from this education module.

If time permits, select either the experience of being perceived as too authoritative or too approachable to discuss further. Then have group members share ways they have navigated this perception. How could the body language of power be applied as a tool to shift the dynamics of these relationships or situations?

4. ACTION  (For the final 10 minutes)
Pick One Action you will do after the meeting. Imagine what, where, when, and with whom it will happen. Each person share the One Action with the group. Plan to report back at the next meeting.
